

CURRINGA FARM, TASMANIA, AUSTRALIA 2018

Welcome to Award Winning “Curringa Farm” - Accommodation and Farm Tours, at Hamilton near Hobart, Southern Tasmania, Australia.

We, Tim and Jane Parsons, own and operate this 750 acre family sheep farm at Hamilton, only one hours drive north-west of Hobart, near Mt Field National Park and Bonorong Wildlife Sanctuary.

Curringa Farm runs 3000 sheep, and crops of opium poppies, cabbages, onions and cereals for seed production.

Curringa Farm offers farm tours with BBQ lunch as an attraction that is excellently suited to the Asian group market. B&B Accommodation exists for FIT travellers.

Farm Tours:

Sheep shearing and working dog demonstrations, lunches, and teas. The farm tours present both small (4 persons) and large (up to 100) groups a unique insight into a genuine Tasmanian farm and can be tailored to accommodate particular interests. Suitable for general groups, seniors, school students and technical visits for all nationalities.

Feel the wool fibres and lanoline creams, Listen to dogs barking and the earth trembling from the hooves of 300 sheep, savour Jane’s delicious home cooked food and learn about traditional family farming in Tasmania.

Lunch is a traditional Aussie BBQ with beef steak or lamb with a selection of salads, rice and hot new potatoes, coconut slice with whipped cream and berry sauce for dessert followed with tea and coffee. Tasmanian wines, lanolin lotions and quality woollen products available for purchase. Lunch min 6 pax. Teas min 4 Pax
